Description:

From This stunning production of the New Testament is made alive by over 100 actors and narrators. Sound effects and background music enhance the visual imagination of the listener. Closing doors, footsteps, clanking chains, and running water are just a few of these enhancements. The birth of Jesus, His death and resurrection, Paul's journeys in the book of Acts, and many other Bible stories take on real meaning through the talent of all involved. Wonderful for small children, teenagers, and adults alike. Whether one listens in the car or as a bedtime devotional, this is audio theater at its best. The New Testament is something that can be heard again and again. N.L. 2009 Audies Finalist © AudioFile 2009, Portland, Maine
